

Achieve Operational Excellence!

We know you are keen to improve your company's performance, to increase customer satisfaction and profits. We have an approach to help ensure this happens. Research confirms customer centric Operational Excellence as a key attribute of leading companies in any industry. Equipped with an excellent operating model, having the right technology strategy driving towards digital transformation and following the right continuous improvement execution path, companies will gain competitive advantage regardless of economic environment.

Collaboration & Development

Psykologpartners Collaboration

Operational Excellence, Lean & Six Sigma with behavioural Psychology provides competitive advantage for our customers. On the 21st of August we got the following Outputs → ten Lean Six Sigma Yellow Belt certified Senior organisational psychologists at Psykologpartners, a sharpened joint concept and a reinforced conviction that our concept has clear 1+1=3 customer benefits.

CorePartner Concept

Promotion & finetuning of the CorePartner concept designed to provide a complete, successful concept for companies to turn into a customer centric, flow efficient and continuous improvement focused company. Please contact us for more information.

Training activities

- Deepening the A3-problem solving skills by practicing on a case using the A3-method, the most utilised problem solving method in Lean.
- Developing capabilities to coach Agile Teams in the agile way of working by learning the tips and tricks to coach teams to get more and better agile capabilities.

Please contact us if you are interested to learn more on what is on-going or what we can do for you.

info@cicons.se or mobile +46 793480707

We are an organization passionate about Operational Excellence and the power of Continuous Improvement. This is what we do by providing people with such expertise through personal interaction in programs, projects, workshops, trainings, seminars and social media.

Our products & services include:

Programs

Projects & Workshops

Trainings & Seminars

New, present & past for CiCONS

New

- Implementation of a continuous improvement culture for a Swedish market leader that produce and develop high-quality, environmentally conscious, innovative textile fibre applications.
- Leading a project to speed-up a 3-D printing innovation process.

On-going

- Continued implementation of a continuous improvement culture at the world leading dental company.

Some Services Delivered

- Global roll-out of management system for a recycling & raw materials provider, being one of the cornerstones activities when implementing a continuous improvement culture.
- Implementation of a Business Intelligence-system for continuous improvement of Safety & Security levels In an organisation.
- Continuous improvement culture implementation through Lean Six Sigma for a world leading dental company, including refining company strategy; program & change management; awareness, green belt & black belt trainings; coaching of 35+ improvement initiatives and implementation of Performance Management & Daily Steering.
- Project & stakeholder management implementing a management system for a big, international retailer.
- Waves of Lean Six Sigma Green Belt trainings for a world leading HR-solution company.
- Business analysis, process development and continuous improvement in the PLM-area for an international retail chain.
- Project & change management in a compliance project for the region's largest infrastructure operator.

CiCONS partnerships:

Operational Business Excellence

Operational Excellence Strategy

Personal Excellence Software

Logistics Operational Excellence Software

